++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Cloudy with the odd shower, but turning dry and brighter.

Today:
Showers, possibly thundery, clipping southeastern parts quickly clear by mid-morning. Elsewhere, a calmer, cloudy start bringing the odd spot of light rain. Clearer skies developing from the north and west leading to a fine afternoon. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Tonight:
Any remaining cloud quickly retreats southwestwards to leave a fine and dry evening for all. Staying dry overnight and turning chilly under clear skies. Minimum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Friday:
A dry and sunny morning, turning hazy at times. Remaining dry and bright in the northwest, but thicker cloud developing in the southeast later to give some rain. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Cloudy Saturday with some sunny spells and the odd light shower. Turning more unsettled for the rest of the period, with heavier showers Sunday and longer spells of rain Monday.
